BYLAWS OF DISTRICT LODGE NO. 34

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MACHINISTS AND AEROSPACE WORKERS

ARTICLE I - NAME AND SCOPE

Section 1. This organization shall be designated and recognized as District Lodge No. 34, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, (hereinafter referred to as the District), and its jurisdictional scope shall include Local Lodge No. 1391, Lawrenceburg, Indiana per Executive Council action, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Local Lodge 818 in the state of Pennsylvania and exclusive of Local Lodges affiliated with Railway District Lodges.

ARTICLE II - DELEGATES

Section 1. This District shall be composed of delegates from affiliated Local Lodges as follows: Each Local Lodge shall be entitled to one (1) standing delegate, namely, President and two (2) delegates elected by each local. Each Local Lodge shall be entitled to one (1) alternate delegate.

Section 2. Local Lodges affiliated with Railway Districts shall be entitled to three (3) fraternal delegates with voice, but no vote; this for the purpose of creating harmony, unity of action, and cooperation between all Local Lodges of related crafts in the Metal Industry.

Section 3. No delegate shall be seated in this District unless he or she has been a continuous good standing member of the Local Lodge he or she represents in the District for at least one (1) year. This does not apply in the case of newly organized Local Lodges. Furthermore, no Local Lodge delegates will be seated unless the District Lodge has been notified in advance in writing to the District Lodge meeting.

Section 4. No delegate shall be a member of a dual organization.

Section 5. Each Local Lodge shall elect District delegates in conjunction with the election of officers of said local lodge, and provide the newly elected delegates with written credentials over the seal of the Local Lodge, which shall be presented with the member's dues book to the Credential Committee of the District for approval or disapproval.

Section 6. A quorum for the transaction of District Lodge business shall consist of not less than twelve (12) delegates. The District meetings will be held in Columbus, Ohio in January, April, July and October of each year. The President of the District may call a special meeting or by petition of a majority of the Executive Board the President shall also call a special meeting.

Section 7. In the event any elected delegate absents himself or herself from two (2) consecutive meetings of the body to which he or she was elected without being excused therefore, and if there is no controversy as to the refusal to excuse being proper, such delegate shall be deemed to have resigned his or her office. The vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the Local Lodge presiding officer on a pro tem basis for that period reasonably required to bring about the nomination and election of a successor.

ARTICLE III - OFFICERS

Section 1. The Officers of this District shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, Recording Secretary, Conductor-Sentinel and a Board of three Trustees.

Section 2. To be eligible for the office of the following Officers of the District; President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, Recording Secretary, Conductor-Sentinel, and a Board of three (3) Trustees, the candidate shall be a duly elected and seated Delegate to District from an affiliated Lodge, excepting as provided for in Article V, Section 3, of these Bylaws.

The above listed Officers shall be nominated, elected, and installed at the regular meeting of the District Lodge held in the month of January every four (4) years.

Nomination and the election of two (2) Delegates to the Ohio State Council of Machinists, two (2) Delegates to the Kentucky State Council of Machinists, two (2) Delegates to the West Virginia State Council of Machinists (one (1) of which must come from West Virginia), two (2) Delegates to the Indiana State Council of Machinists and two (2) Delegates to the Pennsylvania State Council of Machinists unless contrary to the Bylaws of either affiliate will also be held.

The term of Officers and Delegates noted above shall be elected for a term of four years and shall serve until a successor is elected and installed.

Section 3. The District Lodge shall elect at the January meeting in conjunction with District Lodge officers an Auditing Committee, composed of three (3) members of the District Lodge. Officers of the District Lodge are not eligible to be elected as members of this committee. The committee shall immediately after the close of each period, begin with the work of examining the books and accounts of the District Lodge for the preceding half-year period. The report of the committee must be countersigned by the Trustees of the District Lodge. Should one (1) or more auditors fail to be in attendance, the Trustees shall proceed with the work as though all of the committee were present. The Auditing Committee shall render its report on a form furnished for that purpose by the Grand Lodge. The Auditing Committee shall receive $15.00 expenses for each District audit they attend.

Section 4. In the event any officer of this Lodge absents himself from two (2) consecutive, regular meetings of this lodge without being excused therefore, and if there is no controversy as to the refusal to excuse being proper, such officer shall be deemed to have resigned his office. The vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the presiding officer on a pro tem basis for that period reasonably required to bring about the nomination and election of a successor.

(a) Should such officer contend the refusal to excuse him for such absence is improper, the presiding officer shall prefer charges against him, charging conduct unbecoming an officer on the basis of his absence without excuse found acceptable to the Lodge, and he shall be tried in accordance with applicable provisions of the IAM Constitution.

ARTICLE IV - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the District Lodge and to decide all questions and disputes that may arise where no provision exists in the bylaws to cover same; to countersign all checks properly drawn by the Secretary-Treasurer; and to enforce the laws as laid down in the IAM Constitution and District Bylaws. He shall appoint such committees as are provided for in these bylaws, or are authorized by the action of the District Lodge. On a roll call vote, secret ballot, the President may vote, but when a yea or nay vote is taken, the President does not vote, unless to break a tie. He shall receive an expense allowance of $100.00 per month for his services.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Vice President to assist the President at all times and, in his absence, to perform all duties designated to the President. He shall receive $20.00 expenses for his attendance at District meetings and $20.00 expenses at all Executive Board meetings, except when Executive Board meetings are held on a District meeting night.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer to receive all monies due this District; transact all business with the bank designated by the District; keep a correct account of the receipts and disbursements and make a report at the close of each regular meeting of the financial status of the District. At the close of each one half (2) year, June and December, he shall present the books for audit by the elected committee for that purpose and shall forward to the International President a complete report as required and on forms furnished for that purpose. He shall furnish to all affiliated Local Lodges necessary per capita tax forms and copy of the one half (2) yearly report.

For the faithful performance of these duties, the current full time Secretary-Treasurer shall receive a salary equal to the maximum amount per IAM Constitution paid to Business Representatives and Organizers. He shall also receive $600.00 per month expense allowance. This expense allowance shall not be payable during periods of vacation or when incapacitated.

The salary for a newly elected Secretary-Treasurer shall be the minimum as per the IAM Constitution and be reviewed on a yearly basis.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to keep an accurate record of the proceedings of all meetings of the District Lodge and Executive Board, draw all orders passed by the District and attest same by signature and seal if required; present all communications pertaining to district affairs or of general interest; conduct all correspondence as instructed by the District Lodge; forward to each Local Lodge President at their address on record a copy of the proceedings in a timely manner after each regular or special meeting of the District Lodge or Executive Board. For the faithful performance of their duties, the Recording Secretary shall receive an allowance of $30.00 per month.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the Conductor-Sentinel to examine the dues books of the delegates and visiting members; to introduce visitors to the President and after the Lodge meeting is opened, to see that the door is properly secured. For his duties, he shall receive $15.00 expenses per month for regular District meetings and $15.00 expenses for attendance at each Executive Board meeting, except when Executive Board meetings are held on District meeting night.

Section 6. The Board of Trustees shall have charge of all property belonging to the District Lodge; shall see that all of the books are properly kept and at the expiration of each half year, the Trustees shall assist the Auditing Committee in the examination of all books and accounts and verify the report of the Auditing Committee by attaching their signatures thereto.

Should the work of auditing the books of the District Lodge be delayed on account of the failure of one (1) or more of the Trustees to be in attendance, the auditors shall proceed to carry on the work in the same manner as though all of the Trustees were present.

The Trustees shall be liable to the Grand Lodge for all funds and other property of the District Lodge under their control; the Trustees shall not permit the funds, property or assets of the District Lodge to be loaned or appropriated for any other than the legitimate purpose of the IAM. Expenditures or contemplated expenditures in violation of this section shall be cause for any action deemed necessary by a Grand Lodge Officer to fully protect such funds, property or assets of the District Lodge. The Trustees shall receive an expense allowance of $15.00 for attendance at each District meeting and $15.00 expenses at each District Executive Board meeting, except when District Executive Board meetings are held on District meeting night. The Trustees shall receive $15.00 expense if in attendance for the auditing of the District records.

Section 7. Any representative, officer, delegate or member while away on approved travel will be reimbursed the cost of actual hotel/motel expenses.

Section 8. All Local Lodge Presidents, who are in attendance at District No. 34 Executive Board meetings, shall receive fifteen dollars ($15.00) expenses. No District No. 34 Officers or Local Lodge Presidents shall receive more than one (1) expense payment for attending the same meeting.

Section 9. Any representative, officer, delegate or member while away on approved travel will be paid the appropriate per-diem of $35.00 (thirty-five) per day. Commencing on the departing day and ending on the return day.

Section 10. Any representative, officer, delegate or member while away on approved travel will be paid the appropriate I.R.S. mileage rate per mile when traveling by private conveyance. Commencing on the day leaving and ending on the return day.

ARTICLE V - BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVES

Section 1. The District with the approval of the General Vice President shall have the power to create the position to be known as Business Representative and cause an election to be held for said position as provided for in the following sections of this article. The term of service for Business Representatives shall be for four (4) years.

Section 2. Candidates for the position of Business Representative of the District Lodge, IAM, shall be a member of the IAM in continuous good standing for at least two (2) years prior to his nomination and free from any delinquency of any nature to a Local Lodge, the District Lodge or the Grand Lodge of the IAM. He shall also be a member of a Local Lodge affiliated with this District for one (1) year or more, and attended no less than 50% or more of his or her Local Lodge meetings during the year preceding the nomination. Such candidates must be working at the trade at the time and for one (1) year next preceding their nomination. IAM salaried officers, employees or members on strike, victimized or on temporary physical disability are exempted from this provision.

Section 3. The Business Representative of the District Lodge shall be eligible as a candidate for the office of District President. He or she shall hold no other office in the gift of his or her Local or the District Lodge, except he or she may serve as a delegate to any affiliated body and conventions.

The Business Representative shall have a voice in the meetings of the District Lodge.

District delegates shall elect, at the District meeting in January every four (4) years, one (1) of the Business Representatives to serve as Directing Business Representative. The Directing Business Representative shall exercise control of the District office and maintain it on an efficient basis for rendering such services to the members of the affiliated lodges, as authorized and directed by the District Lodge and Grand Lodge. He shall employ and supervise the office employees and supervise the activities of the Business Representatives and Organizer(s). The Directing Business Representative subject to the approval of the General Vice President has the authority to appoint an Assisting Directing Business Representative. There shall be no monetary compensation for this position. He shall make a monthly report to the District Delegate and shall give a written report to the District Secretary-Treasurer of the Business Representatives' and Organizer(s)' activities. The Directing Business Representative shall appoint one of the other Business Representatives to direct the office employees in the event of his absence for illness, vacation or other reasons for absences. If the office of Directing Business Representative becomes vacant for any reason that vacancy shall be filled by an election by the Delegates of the District. Said election shall be held within two (2) weeks of the vacancy at a special meeting or a called regular meeting whichever is sooner. The Directing Business Representative will be governed by and will comply with all current Official Circulars concerning their duties.

Section 4. Business Representatives must carry $50,000 and $100,000 liability and property damage insurance on their automobiles to be paid for by the Business Representative and proof shown the District Lodge Officers of same.

Section 5. The duties of a Business Representative shall be to investigate all grievances that may arise and endeavor to adjust same to the best advantage of the organization and members involved. In handling of grievances or negotiations involving wages and working conditions, when the men so desire, he must be accompanied by a duly authorized committee representing the members in the plant or shop involved. He shall counsel and confer with the District Lodge as occasions may require and shall use his best endeavors to organize all workers in the District who are eligible for membership in the IAM. He shall at all times perform to the best of his ability the duties assigned to him by the Directing Business Representative. On the last day of each week, all Business Representatives shall file with the International President and General Vice President a report of their activities and a copy of same given to the District Directing Business Representative.

Section 6. Each affiliated Lodge in the month of April is entitled to nominate one (1) candidate for each office of Business Representative. Said nomination, with the Seal of the Local Lodge, must be in the office of the District not later than May 5th together with the address and card number of said candidate.

Section 7. Election of Business Representative(s) to be by District delegate (in their respective District Lodge areas; DL 20, DL 28, & DL34 per merger agreement) vote unless there is no contest, in which case, the District Secretary-Treasurer shall cast a ballot electing the candidate(s) having no opposition. The candidate(s) receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected and be given the oath of his/her office.

Section 8. Effective with the approval of Bylaws the Business Representative's salary shall be the maximum per IAM Constitution and shall be maintained in that position. Newly elected Business Representatives shall start at the minimum and shall receive increases every six (6) months of one eighth (1/8) of the difference between the minimum and maximum salaries until they reach top salary (four years).

Effective with the approval of Bylaws the District Lodge Organizer salary shall be maximum per IAM Constitution and shall be maintained in that position. Newly appointed Organizer(s) shall start at the minimum and shall receive increases every six (6) months of one eighth (1/8) of the difference between the minimum and maximum salaries until they reach top salary (four years).

The Directing Business Representatives, the Business Representatives and the District Lodge Organizer shall receive $600.00 per month automobile expenses. In addition to the monthly automobile expense the IRS allowable mileage rate will be paid to William W. Winpisinger Center and on organizing blitzes or special assignment or outside normal servicing duties or as assigned by the Directing Business Representative. This automobile expense allowance shall not be payable during periods of vacation or when a Business Representative is incapacitated.

The vacation schedule for the Business Representatives, Organizer(s), and Secretary-Treasurer shall be as follows: After the completion of one (1) year's service, two (2) weeks' vacation; five (5) years' service, three (3) weeks' vacation; after ten (10) years' service, four (4) weeks' vacation, after fifteen (15) years of service, five (5) weeks of vacation. Vacations must be taken within the year they are earned, except where good cause is shown and approved by the Directing Business Representative, they may be carried over to the following year only.

District 34 shall contribute into a Health and Welfare Fund only those monies not covered by a contract in any of the shops that the Business Representatives, Organizers, and Secretary-Treasurer and their families belong. The District shall make checks payable to the plans only and not the person or persons involved. In the event coverage of health and welfare for a Business Representative, Organizer or their families is cancelled or runs out, the District will promptly make arrangements to pay into the IAM

National Health and Welfare Plan or District Health and Welfare Plan, for their coverage. This payment will be by check to the plan only. The District shall pay only the single plan when the Business Representative, or Organizer and Secretary-Treasurer has no dependents. Coverage will not exceed that negotiated for the membership in these plans. The District shall not pay for weekly sickness and accident plans, for Business Representatives or Organizers and the Secretary-Treasurer if their salaries continue to be paid while off for illness or injury.

Effective January 1, 1984, District Lodge No. 34 shall pay the premiums for medifill insurance policy for each eligible retired Business Representative and/or Organizer, retired or retiring, under the IAM Business Representatives pension plan.

ARTICLE VI - AUTHORITY

Section 1. This District shall have the authority to endorse the institution of new Local Lodges and/or the discontinuance of any Lodge or Lodges within its jurisdiction with the approval of Grand Lodge.

Section 2. This District may, at the discretion of the Delegates, recommend either the raising or the lowering of initiation or reinstatement fees of any Local Lodge or Lodges within its jurisdiction, for a given period of time providing same does not conflict with the Constitution of the IAM and have approval of the General Vice President.

Section 3. The District Lodge shall have the authority to remove from office any official or employee of the District for incompetency or for any act which this District considers detrimental to the cause of Labor provided written charges are filed by a member of an affiliated Local Lodge with the President of the District Lodge and supported by majority vote (secret ballot) of the Delegates present at meeting, notice of which has been served on all Delegates in writing by mail or otherwise at least seven (7) days before date of meeting. Any elected official or employee of the District against whom charges have been preferred shall, upon written request, be given a trial. Such trial shall be governed by procedure outlined in the code of the IAM Constitution with the express provision that all proceedings shall be under the supervision of the District Lodge and instituted with the District President. Any employee not a member of the IAM may be removed from the District payroll by the Directing Business Representative and approved by the District Lodge.

Section 4. The Code in the IAM Constitution shall govern the removal of any Officer, Delegate or Business Representative of this District.

ARTICLE VII - COMMITTEE

Section 1. The following committees shall be appointed by the President and the terms of these committees shall be the same as the District Lodge officers effective January 2005.

- (a) Organizing Committee
- (b) Credential Committee
- (c) Legislative Committee
